

Terms and Conditions (ONLY if you decline Shipping Insurance Option)

I agree that if I accept my spa, tanning bed, or sauna and DO NOT note any damages on the Freight Bill, that I will take full responsibility for any damage that may be visible or concealed and repair it at my own expense. Furthermore, I agree to release Leisure Products Inc. from any liability concerning damage not noted. Any claim I might have will be solely between myself and the freight carrier. I also agree that by me declining the shipping insurance option, I will not initiate a dispute with my credit card company concerning any damage on my spa, tanning bed, or sauna, as I agree it is my responsibility by declining shipping insurance and not noting it on my freight bill.
